A book review of ... Rabbit & Bear

by ... Julian Gough & Jim Field

Reviewer: Keira

Review date: 6th March 2023

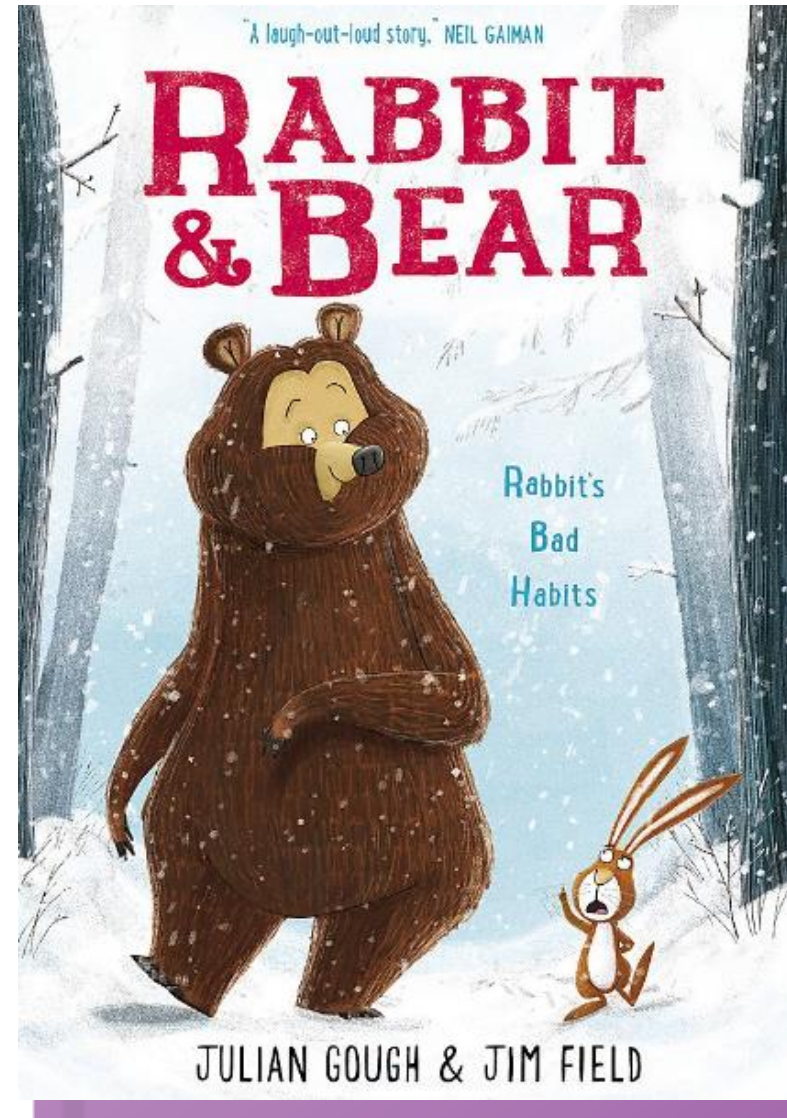

Review

Rabbit and Bear is about Bear wanting to build a snowman but Rabbit wanted to make a better one. Rabbit pushed Bear's snowman body down the hill and it smashed into some ice.

I like this book because it was funny. I really like the part when bear was happy and when Rabbit and Bear started to make friends as I love being friends with people.

Review

Pirate Blunderbeard wanted to take part in a pirate test but he thought that he would be in last place because he was rubbish. But when he found treasure, he was in 1st place.

This is a good book. I like it because it gets very exciting, and I like that he is aspirational. My favourite character is Blunderbeard because he is very silly and makes me laugh.

Reviewer: Estelle

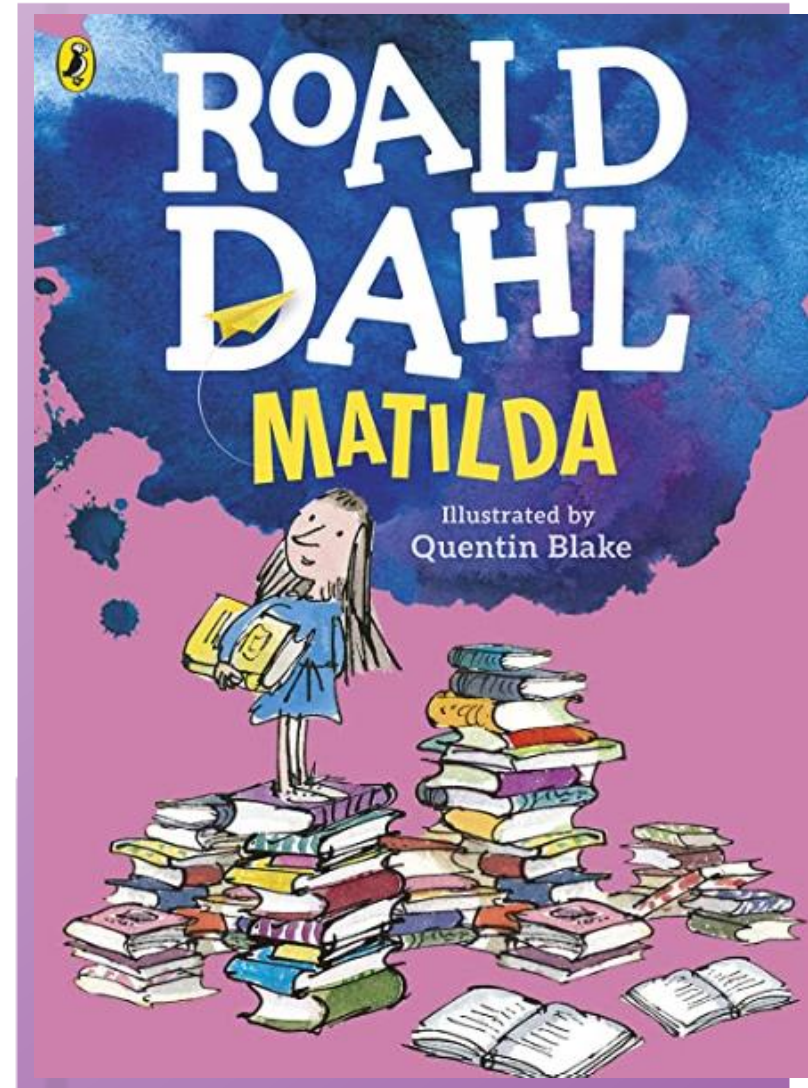

Review date: 6th March 2023

Review

Matilda is all about a girl who can control things with her mind. She can lift things up and down whenever she wishes. Her father and mother are not nice people and do not treat Matilda respectfully, and send her to a school with a mean headteacher. In order for Matilda to unlock her power, she must practice. I think it is a very good book and fun to read because I like her power and how amazing the illustrations are.

Reviewer: ... Lucy

Review date: ... 6th March 2023

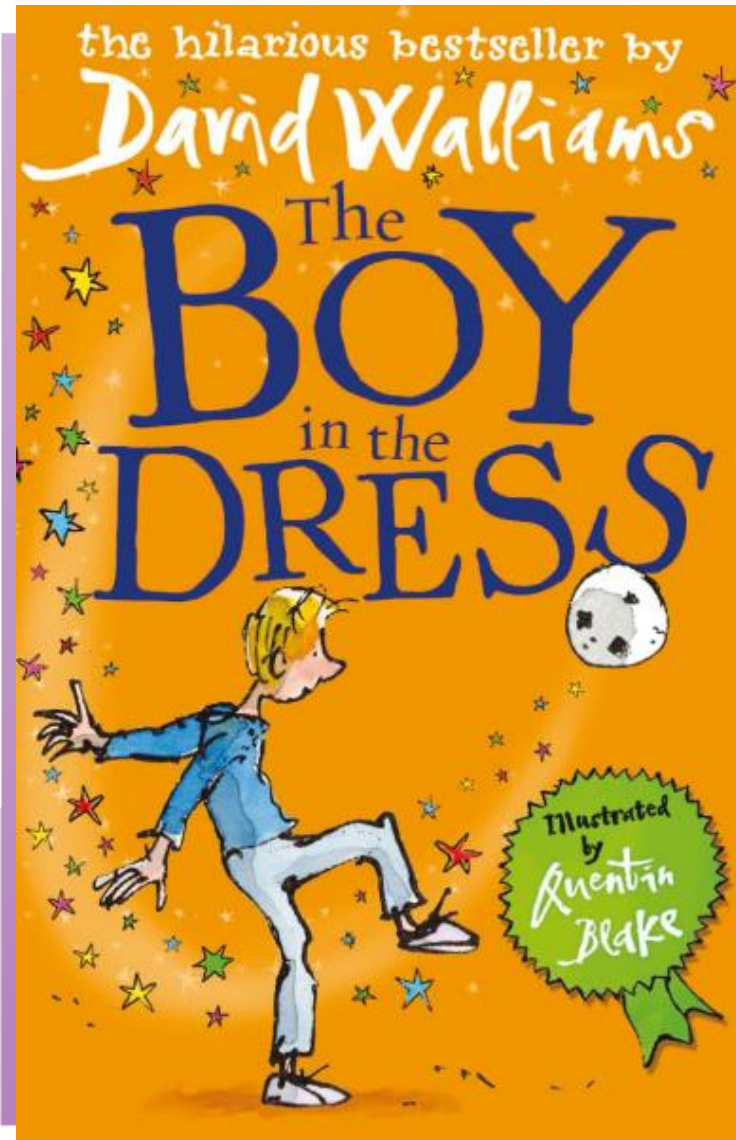

Review

This eye-catching book is about a boy who loves comics featuring dresses and fashion, but Dennis' dad does not accept this hobby, so he puts all of the comics in the bin. One day, Dennis meets a girl called Lisa who loves all the dresses in the world. Lisa invites Dennis over to try some new clothes on, and when Dennis is due to play in his next football match, he decides to show off his interest and play in one of Lisa's dresses. I love the book because people should not be afraid to show what they really like to do. I think that Dennis is brave and strong and a good role model.

Review

The Boy at the Back of the Class is about a refugee boy called Ahmet who joins a school after running away from the war in Syria. He makes new friends who try to help him to find his parents by sending a letter to the Queen so that she can get the government to help his parents. Do you think he will find them?

I think this story was really exciting because it kept making me want to read on to find out if he would be reunited with his parents. I also love the book because it's about being different and accepting of everyone.

Review

Wild Boy – a book of tension and murder mystery – a boy framed for murder, covered in hair, destined to uncover the truth with acrobat Clarissa and legless freak Sir Oswald.

I love this book as it is nail-biting and fun to read. Being set in the 1800s, it draws us away from the reality of technology and modern equipment and into a world where people face challenges for being different.

We enjoyed reading the cat in The Hat because we enjoy Dr Seuss stories and poems.

Some of the things we like about The cat In The hat are;

- * It's funny
- * The boy and girl characters.
- * Thing 1 and 2 mess about and make a mess.
- * The Cat is funny.
- * The story rhymes.
- *It is raining in the book.
- *The colours of the illustrations

We think you should read this book if you like cats! .

Review

This story was very exciting because the pirates had to go and find the treasure. They went searching and found that the treasure was a parrot. It is also a bit scary because there was a bad and not very nice pirate. It has a happy ending because they get the treasure and eat lots of cake.

It's really cool. We like it so much. It is about a witch on a broom. The witch had a bow that blew out of her hair. The frog got nice and clean in a shower after being muddy. The Dragon was scaring the witch. All the animals saved the witch from the Dragon. The book is a little bit scary and funny. We think you will like the story.

A book review of The Koala Who Could

by Rachel Bright

Reviewer: The Koala Class

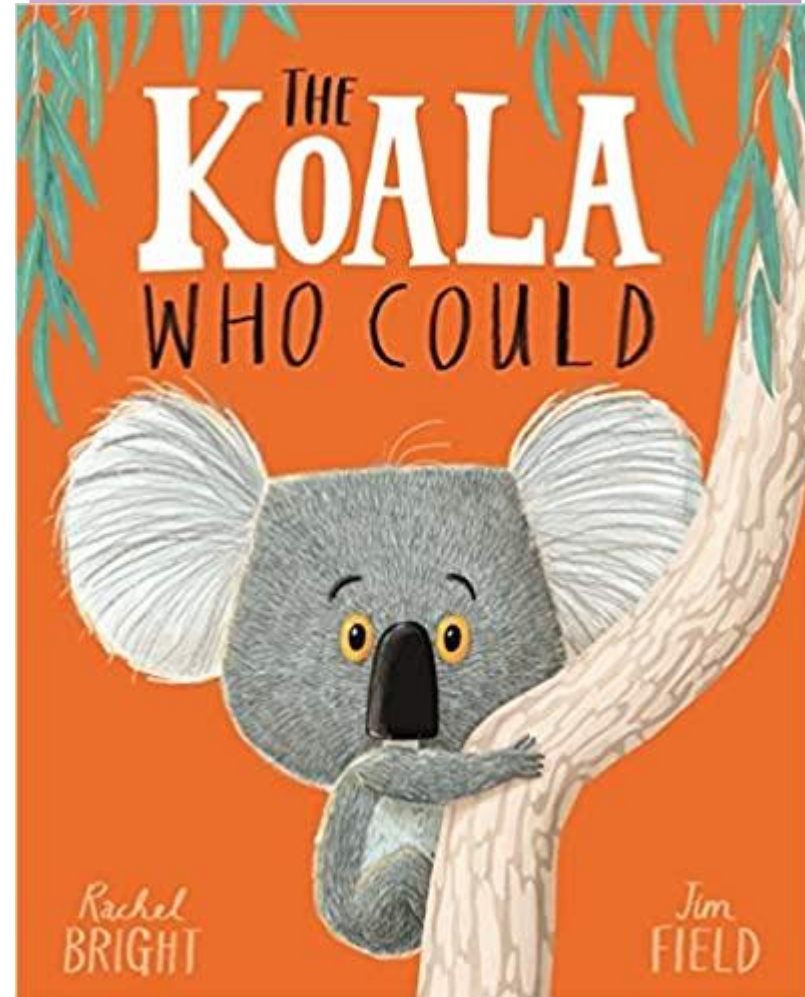

Review date: 02/02/2023

Review

At the beginning, Kevin was afraid because he had not left his tree and his friends wanted to play with him. We have also felt frightened to try new things like changing classes and making new friends, so we understood how Kevin felt. By the end, Kevin was very brave because he finally let go of the tree. We can also think of lots of times when we have been brave, even though we were scared. We think that this is a brilliant story that teaches us to be brave and try something new. We would recommend this book to a friend who may be frightened to do something new.

A book review of Sam Wu is NOT afraid of the dark

by Katie and Kevin Tsang

Reviewer: Kaiden

Review date: 01/03/2023

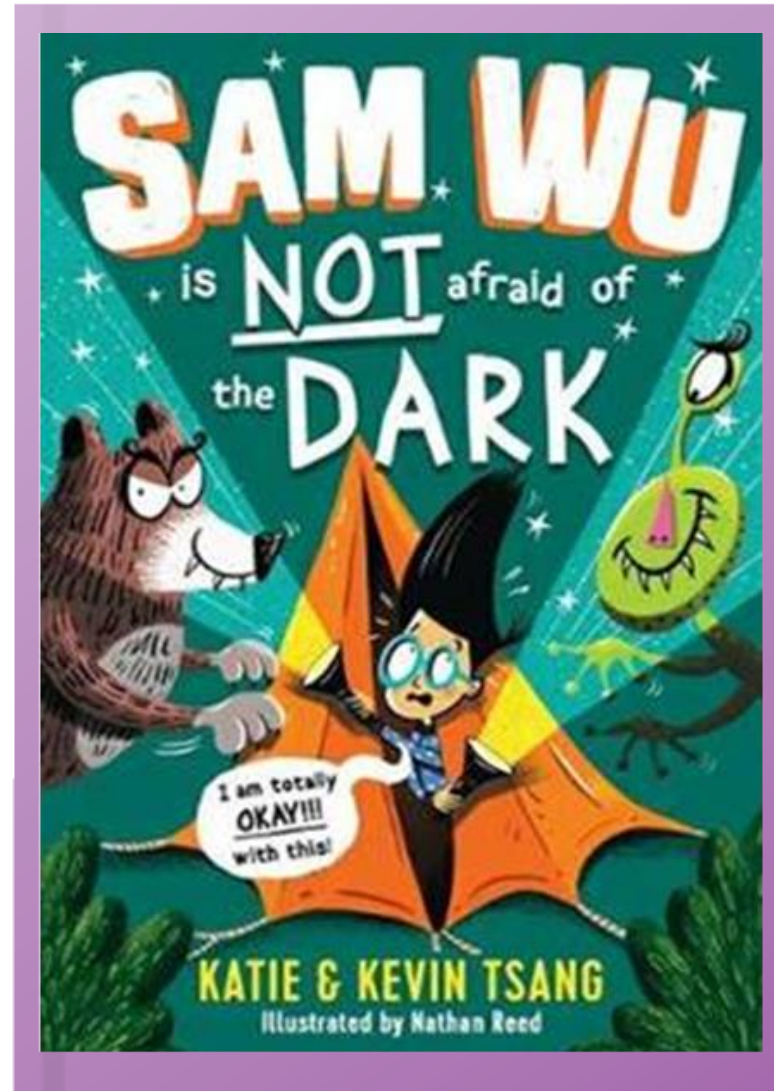

Review

The main character is Sam Wu who goes camping with his cousin, Stanley and friend, Bernard. My Favourite character is Sam Wu because he is very funny and brave. My favourite part of the story is when Sam Wu is running from the bats that were sleeping in the deep, dark, spooky cave, their facial expressions made me smile. The book is full of comedy, humour and adventure and I would recommend this book too any child who loves silliness and who likes a good giggle.

A book review of Sam Wu is NOT afraid of the dark

by Katie and Kevin Tsang

Reviewer: Poppy

Review date: 01/03/2023

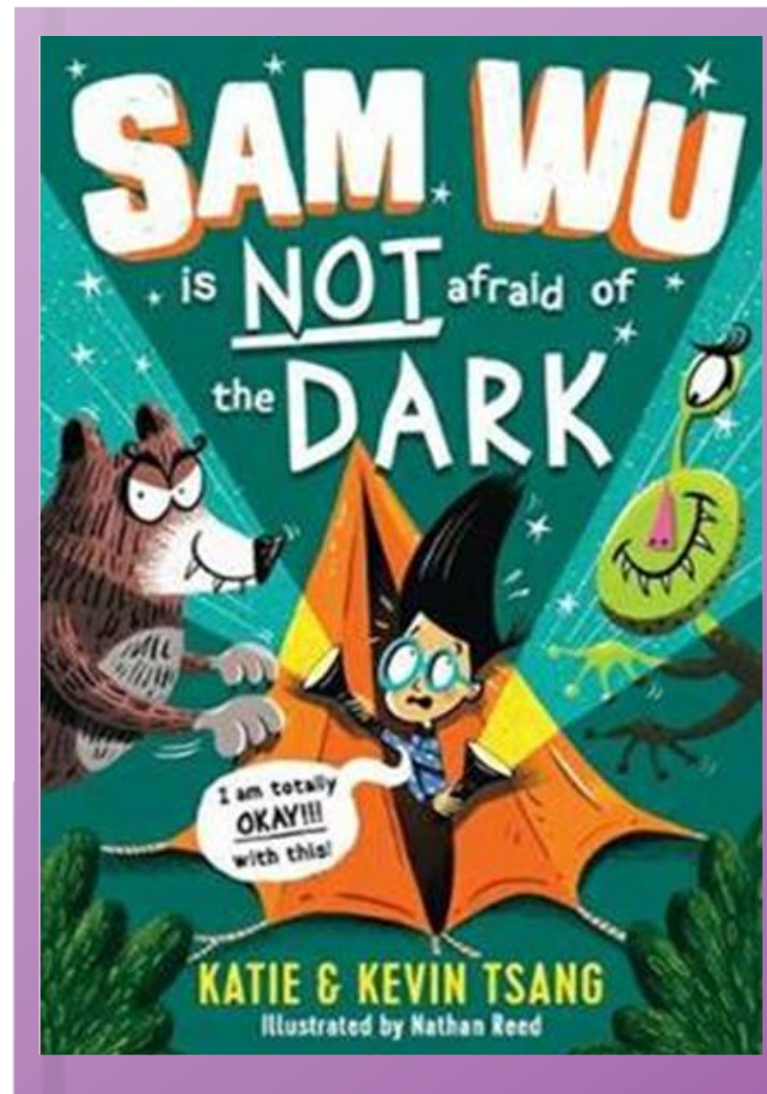

Review

The book is based on a boy named Sam Wu who is petrified of the dark but pretends not to be! He is forced to go on a camping trip in the deep, dark woods with his friends and his cousin. He wishes he didn't have to, especially when his enemy Ralph ends up being there too. My favourite character was Ralph because he asked Sam Wu if he was scared until he had to enter into the cave – I bet he regretted saying that! I enjoyed it when Sam Wu saw a bush moving and his imagination spirals out of control! What is lurking in the bushes? Could it be a bear? You'll have to read it to find out. I would definitely recommend this book to lots of different children.

Review

Are you looking for your next gloriously scrumptious adventure? Well look no further than Roald Dahl's inspiring Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, supported by Quentin Blake's vivid and heart-warming illustrations. Imagine living in the center of a misty, boggy and soul-destroying town, but then something magical happens...you enter an eye-catching, magnificent, scrumptious world of sweets and chocolate. Well, that's what happened to one selfless young boy. Every morning, once a day, Charlie had to get up to do his chores (delivering papers), and only once a year, Charlie was allowed a taste of a Willy Wonka chocolate bar. However, one particular bar took him on an incredible journey where he met strange new characters and his life changed forever.

A book review of Kensuke's Kingdom

by Michael Morpurgo

Reviewer: Lilly

Review date: March 2023

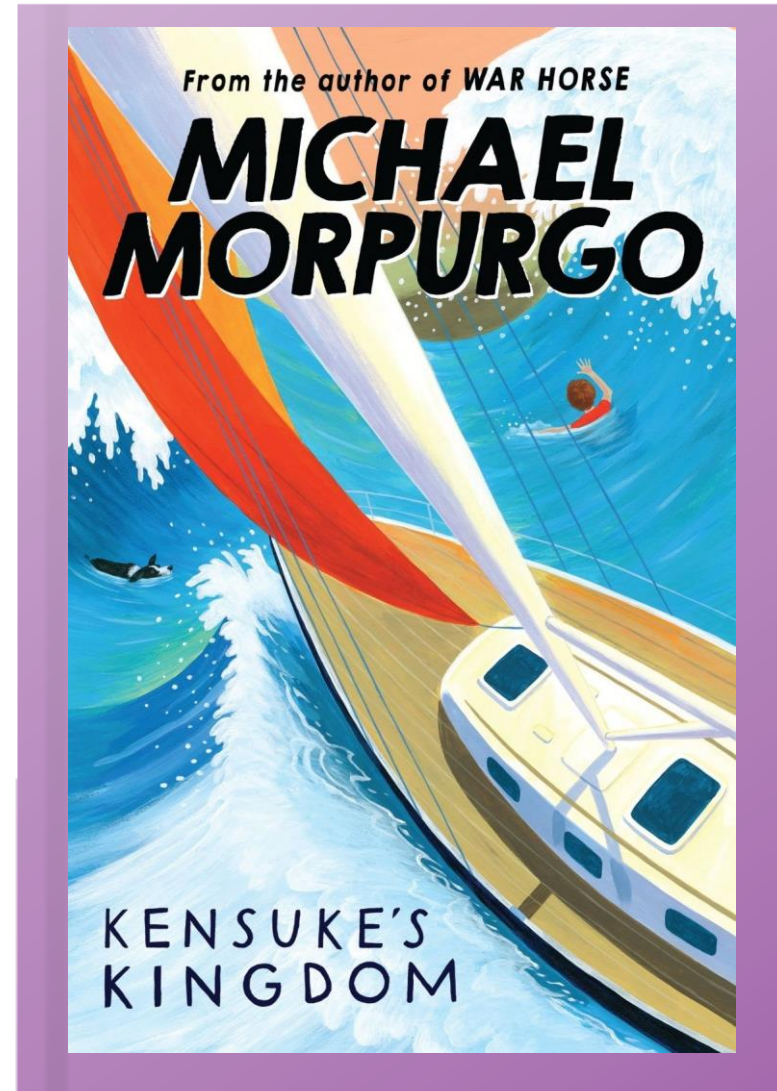

Review

I chose this book because the blurb really intrigued me; I liked the fact it mentioned survival and I wanted to find out if Michael (the main character) was safe. My favourite character is Kensuke because I love how he supports Michael when he has an injury. My favourite part is when Kensuke saves all of the orangutans! In this story there are themes of teamwork, friendship and survival. Both Michael and Kensuke are very resilient and resourceful. The moral of this story is to be kind and never give up - you can do anything if you just set your mind to it. I would recommend this book to Year 5/6 because there are some tricky words in it.

A book review of Skellig

by David Almond

Reviewer: Eve

Review date: 06/03/2023

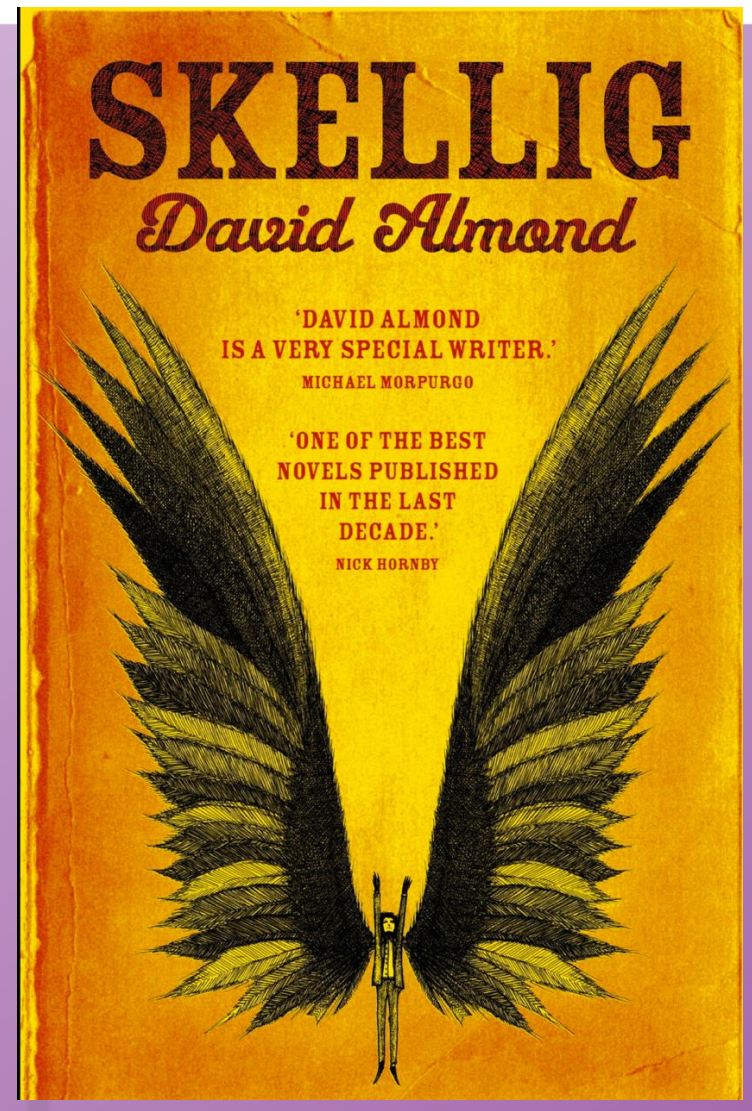

Review

Skellig in 3 words: thrilling, phenomenal, fast-paced and action-packed.

Now I may have gone over the three words but that's because this book just has so much happening, with the characters twisting and turning in so many directions so that you can never predict what will happen next, which is one of the reasons why it is such a joy to read! The story begins with the young boy Michael, who has just moved to a new house. The house is old and seems derelict and decrepit, and if this wasn't enough, Michael's baby sister is very unwell, piling more and more weight onto his already heavy shoulders. Suddenly, the world has become a very scary place. Yet, when Michael ventures into the ancient garage that his family had warned him to stay away from, he makes an extraordinary discovery: Skellig, the owl man with wings. He knows that Skellig would not survive without his help, so with the aid of his new friend Mina, Michael sets out to care for and look out for Skellig, hoping that one day he would be able to fly once more. This book is incredible and is written by an utterly fantastic author. While it does have that fictional side of the story, the whole man with wings part of the book, it also looks closely into other areas such as the stress Michael is faced with when his sister is taken into surgery, and the friendship he builds with Mina, and I honestly think the book would be quite boring without these parts of the story. Overall, I would rate it 4/5 stars because it is not one of my favourite books, but I would definitely read it again. I would say it is suitable for children 10 and over because of the parts about his little sister, it can be very emotional in parts and younger children might not understand or enjoy it as much as older children would. It is a captivating read and is very difficult to put down! If you think you might enjoy this book from my review, it is definitely worth a read!

Review

My favourite book is Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets. My favourite character is Hermione because she is clever. The best bit of the book is when Harry defeats Voldemort and the basilisk. I did not like the bit where Ron and Harry are carried off to Aragog the Spider. I think you should read this book because it is exciting and frightening and funny!

Review

This book is about a boy called Frank and his dad called Gilbert. Gilbert is a racing car driver. During one race Gilbert had a really bad accident which meant that the doctors had to chop off his leg! Because Gilbert had one leg he could not race anymore so he and Frank had no money. Frank had to give up his toys which made Gilbert started doing bad things for a gangster called Mr Big. I think that other children like me would enjoy this book and I rate it 9/10!

The main characters in this book are Mr Hoppy, Miss Silver and Alfie the Tortoise. It is a wonderful book! I thought Mr Hoppy was really clever because he kept on saying that he could make Alfie grow by feeding him and saying the magic words but he actually just changed him over and over again!

I would rate the book as 5 stars!

Did you know... the magic words 'esio trot' spelt backwards is just 'tortoise?'

A book review of Clean Break

by Jaqueline Wilson

Reviewer: Year 6 Student

Review date: March 2023

Review

Clean Break is written by the famous author Jaqueline Wilson and is illustrated by Nick Sharratt. It is a story all about relationships within a family and how that family breaks down. My favourite character is Em's Mum, Julie. Her personality is complicated – she is stern with Dad, happy with her children and then moody with herself. I feel for this character as she struggles to look after the 3 children when the Dad leaves and takes the money with him! I found this book truly interesting, and it inspired me to read more by this author.

I rate this book as 5 stars!
